Top attorneys in the U.S. are asking for as much as $1,250 an hour, according to recent court filings, significantly more than in previous years, as they take advantage of big clients willing to pay top dollar even amid the downturn. The move is contributing to price inflation across the sprawling $100 billion global corporate law firm industry, where lawyers often study rival attorney fee filings in bankruptcy cases. See which attorneys had some of the highest-known hourly rates in 2010 and 2009. Click on column headers to sort.
